The Arkansas Public Policy Panel advances social and economic justice through respect for human dignity, diversity, empowerment and an inclusive, fair and transparent political process. The Panel provides hands-on experience in civic participation by helping community groups organize, create infrastructure, set goals and develop action plans to reach those goals. We form this Legislative Question Committee to educate voters how Amendment 2 will weaken Arkansans right to self govern by making it harder for citizen initiated laws to pass at the ballot box. Amendment 2 will be on the ballot on Tuesday, November 8, 2022.
