Please note:

- 1. Reports must be filed with the Secretary of State.

2. In calculating the amount of contributions received or expenditures made for purposes of determining whether a candidate has received contributions or made expenditures in excess of five hundred dollars ($500), the payment of the filing fee from the candidate’s personal funds shall not be considered as either a contribution or an expenditure. Once the five hundred dollar ($500) threshold has been met, a candidate who has used his or her personal funds to pay the filing fee is required to report same. Such a candidate would report the funds used to pay the filing fee as either a loan or a contribution to the campaign from the candidate and also as a campaign expenditure.
3. All candidates are required to file a final report for an election regardless of whether or not they were opposed in the election.
