In addition, the Secretary of State shall provide a form to be filed simultaneously with the lobbyist report which indicates that it is signed by a registered lobbyist under penalty of perjury under Ark. Code Ann. § 5-53-102, and that the lobbyist activity report is accurate.

(b) An activity report filed pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section shall consist of the front page of the lobbyist activity report indicating that no activity has occurred.

§ 510. Basic requirements of lobbyist activity reports.

- (2) The name and address of the registered lobbyist and his or her client(s).

If desired, however, a lobbyist may report reimbursements for the lobbyist’s own expenses separately from other expenditures made for or on behalf of the employer or client. In such event, there would be two entries for that employer or client.)

- (A) the date of the expenditure;
- (B) the exact amount paid by the lobbyist towards the total expenditure

(NOTE: in calculating the amount paid for a meal, sales tax related to the meal should be included but it is not necessary to include the tip related to the meal);

- (C) the name of the public servant benefited;

- (I) the name of the lobbyist's employer or client making the expenditure and, if applicable, the names of all other lobbyists sharing in the cost of the payment.

EXAMPLES:

(i) If a lobbyist takes a public servant and his or her spouse to dinner and spends more than $40 on the public servant or more than $80 on the public servant and his or her spouse, the lobbyist shall itemize the expenditure.

(ii) If three lobbyists provide a meal to a public servant costing $75 and split the bill for the meal evenly, the $40 itemization would be met and each lobbyist would report an expenditure of $25 as well as the names of the other lobbyists sharing the cost of the meal.

(iii) If four lobbyists provide two public servants with lodging or travel costing $152 and split the bill evenly, the itemization threshold would be met and each lobbyist would report an expenditure of $38 as well as the names of the other lobbyists sharing the expense.

- (3) Any other item paid or given to a public servant or on behalf of a public servant, except campaign contributions, having a value in excess of $40 each unless consideration of equal or greater value has been given therefor. The information reported shall include:

 - (F) a description of the item; and
 - (G) if the person receiving or being benefited by the item is a public employee, the governmental body which employs the person shall be identified.

EXAMPLE: If five lobbyists share equally in the cost of giving of an item worth $100 to a public servant, the $40 itemization threshold would be met and each lobbyist would report the giving of a $20 item to the public servant and also report the names of the other lobbyists sharing in the cost of the giving of the item.

(b) Lobbyist activity reports shall include:

- (1) a detailed statement of any money loaned or promised or line of credit established for a public servant or on behalf of the public servant over $25 per individual, except as noted in § 514(3); and
- (2) a statement detailing the direct business association or partnership with any public servant whom the lobbyist may lobby.

(c) Whenever the name of a public servant will appear in an activity report of a lobbyist, the lobbyist shall notify the public servant and provide him or her the information being reported. The lobbyist shall mail or deliver the notification to the public servant not later than seven (7) working days prior to the date for filing the activity report.

§ 512. Reporting of expenditures for amusement, charity and sporting events.

(a) On the activity report, the lobbyist shall itemize each expenditure made for the benefit of a public servant for a ticket or tickets to an event or events, if this expenditure exceeds $40 in the aggregate.

EXAMPLE: If the lobbyist buys four tickets to a football game costing $22 each and gives them all to a legislator, the lobbyist must itemize this expenditure on his lobbyist activity report. This lobbyist would report that he made an $88 expenditure on four tickets to a football game, the date of the expenditure and the name of the legislator to whom he gave the tickets. Even if the lobbyist did not originally intend to give the tickets to the legislator, the fact that he eventually did so makes this an expenditure on behalf of a public servant under § 511 of these rules.

(b) “Event or events,” as used in this section, includes, but is not limited to, sporting events such as football or basketball games and hunting or fishing trips, entertainment or arts events such as concerts or plays, and charity fundraising events such as banquets. “Event or events” does not include “special events” as defined in § 513.

(c) The lobbyist shall itemize each expenditure made for the benefit of a public servant for hunting or fishing trips by reporting its fair market value. The fair market value of a hunting or fishing trip is equivalent to the cost of such a trip as available from a commercial provider. In pricing hunting and fishing trips, the lobbyist shall presume that the public servant hunted or fished whether or not he or she actually did so. The value of the expenditure should also include the fair market value of food, lodging, or travel if such was provided during the trip.

(d) When reporting the cost of tickets to a charity event, the value of the ticket to the event shall not include the tax deductible portion of the ticket.

§ 513. Reporting special events.

(a) Generally, expenses related to lobbying activity are itemized as detailed in §§ 510-512 of these rules. In the case of special events, as defined in paragraph (b), where the expenses related to the event are incurred by the lobbyist, the lobbyist need not allocate the expenses by individual but may categorize them on a group basis as listed herein in paragraph (c).

(b) A special event is a planned activity where a specific governmental body or identifiable groups of public servants are invited. Special events may include parties, dinners, athletic events, entertainment, and charity events. For a discussion of the meaning of the terms “specific governmental body” and “identifiable groups of public servants”, see Advisory Opinion No. 99-EC-008.

(c) In the case of a special event, expenses need not be allocated by individuals. The information reported for a special event shall include:

- (1) the date of the event;
- (2) the name of the event;
- (3) the location of the event;
- (4) the name of the governmental body or group(s) of public servants invited;
- (5) the exact amount paid by the lobbyist towards the total expenditure;
and
- (6) the name of the lobbyist’s employer or client making the expenditure and, if applicable, the names of all other lobbyists sharing in the cost of the payment.

EXAMPLE: If two lobbyists invite the members of the Senate Insurance & Commerce Committee to a dinner, the dinner may be reported as a special event. If the lobbyists split the cost of the dinner evenly, each lobbyist would report their share of the dinner as well as the name of the other lobbyist sharing in the cost of the dinner.

(d) Hospitality rooms may be reported as a special event provided the lobbyists invite specific governmental bodies or identifiable groups of public servants as provided for in these rules. When reporting hospitality room expenses, the lobbyist shall itemize:
