Summary of Proposed Amendments to 7 CAR § 3 et seq.
(The Rules on Campaign Finance & Disclosure)

Arkansas Ethics Commission

Purpose:

The purpose of these proposed amendments is to bring 7 CAR § 3 et seq. (The Rules on Campaign Finance & Disclosure) into conformity with the legislation passed during the 95th General Assembly of the Arkansas Legislature in 2025. A specific part of the Code of Arkansas Rules (7 CAR § 3- The Rules on Campaign Finance & Disclosure) is used as a resource when running for public office, so it is important that the rules are updated as soon as possible to provide timely assistance to candidates for public office in Arkansas during the 2026 campaign cycle.

Summary:

Act 250 (Sections 1 and 2) of 2025 amended Ark. Code § 7-6-207(a)(1) to delete former requirements that the Final Campaign Contribution & Expenditure Report (“Final C&E Report”) for candidates for state or district office be filed within thirty (30) days after the end of the month of the election and no later than the last day of the month after the end of the month of the election. Act 250 replaced these due dates with the requirement that the Final C&E Report be filed, as follows (strikeout omitted): “(D)(i) No later than twenty (20) days after the end of the month following the month in which the candidate’s name has appeared on the ballot...”. In addition, Act 250 specified that a Final C&E Report cover “all contributions received and expenditures made for that election which have not been disclosed on reports previously required to be filed through the month following the month during which a primary election, runoff election, general election, or special election is held.” (7 CAR §§ 3-137(b)(2)(D) and 3-137(b)(4)(A))

Act 270 (Section 1) of 2025 amended Ark. Code § 7-6-203(a)(1)(A) and changed the word “level” to “limit” and deleted the phrase “rule of” as follows: “It shall be unlawful for any candidate...to accept campaign contributions in excess of the maximum campaign contribution ~~level~~ limit established by the Arkansas Ethics Commission...”. Act 270 (Section 3) of 2025 amended Ark. Code § 7-6-203(i) concerning the establishment of the maximum campaign contribution limit, as follows: "(1)(A) The adjusted maximum campaign contribution limit shall be calculated from a base amount of two thousand dollars ($2,000) as of January 1, 2015; (1)(B)(i) The ~~contribution limits~~ maximum campaign contribution limit shall be adjusted ~~at the beginning of~~ each odd-numbered year in an amount equal to the percentage certified to the Federal Election Commission by the ~~United States Bureau of Labor Statistics~~ United States Secretary of Labor under 52 U.S.C. § 30116(c) as existing on January 1, ~~2015~~ 2025. (7 CAR §§ 3-104(d)(1) and 3-104(d)(3))

Act 270 (Section 3) of 2025 amended Ark. Code § 7-6-203(i) and added new guidelines for how the maximum campaign contribution limit is calculated and adjusted, as follows:

(C) If the amount of the maximum campaign contribution limit after adjustment under subdivision ~~(i)(2)(i)(1)(B)~~ of this section is not a multiple of one hundred dollars ($100), the Arkansas Ethics Commission shall round the amount to the nearest multiple of one hundred dollars ($100).

(2)(A) The Arkansas Ethics Commission shall ~~promulgate rules identifying the adjusted contribution limit under this subsection:~~ (i) Publish the maximum campaign contribution limit established under subdivision (i)(1) of this section on the official website of the Arkansas Ethics Commission and in any other location or format deemed necessary by the Arkansas Ethics Commission; and (ii) Make the maximum campaign contribution limit established under subdivision (i)(1) of this section available to the Secretary of State, elected public officials, candidates, committees under this subchapter, and the public.

(B) The maximum campaign contribution limit established under subdivision (i)(1) of this section shall be: (i) Effective upon being published upon the official website of the Arkansas Ethics Commission; and (ii) Retroactive to the date of the certification to the Federal Election Commission by the United States Secretary of Labor under subdivision (i)(1)(B)(i) of this section.

(C) The maximum campaign contribution limit established under subdivision (i)(1) of this section: (i) Is not a rule under §§ 10-3-309 and 25-15-202; and (ii) Shall not be promulgated under the Arkansas Administrative Procedure Act, § 25-15-201 et seq. (7 CAR § 3-104(d)(4) and (5)(A) through (C))

(B) If services are rendered after working hours, they will typically be viewed as exempted volunteer services.

(b)(1) In accordance with subsection (a) of this section, certain professional services, such as legal and accounting services, that typically have fees associated with them may be provided to a candidate on a volunteer basis, provided the need for the services arises from the campaign.

(c)(1) An individual may use his or her home or the recreational room of his or her residential complex for a candidate and/or party-related activities, and such use will not be deemed a contribution.

(2) Any nominal fee charged for the use of the room is not considered a contribution.

(B) Any amounts over one thousand dollars ($1,000) would need to be duly reported as an in-kind contribution.

(d) An individual may volunteer and obtain the use of a church or community center room for a candidate or party-related activities without incurring an in-kind contribution, provided the room is used on a regular basis without charge by members of the community without regard to political affiliation and for noncommercial purposes.

(d) The use of campaign funds to pay a candidate's own personal expenses for food, lodging, or travel to attend a national presidential nominating convention shall not be considered a taking of campaign funds as personal income.

(e) If an expense is the result of campaign or officeholder activity, then it is not considered personal use and not prohibited by those sections and subsections herein limiting the personal use of campaign funds or remaining campaign funds.

(f) For those candidates who lose an election and have remaining campaign funds or for those officeholders who are no longer in office, personal use of such funds remains prohibited for expenses unless the expenses relate to a future candidacy.

7 CAR § 3-110. Personal expenses — Prohibited uses.

- (i) Food purchased for day-to-day consumption in the personal residence; and
- (ii) Supplies purchased to maintain the personal residence.

(B) It does not include:

(ii) Such items may be purchased with campaign funds and are a legitimate campaign expense;

(3) Mortgage, rent, and utility payments.

(A) This includes any payments with respect to a personal residence of the candidate or his or her family, even if a portion of the residence is used by the campaign.

(B) It does not include payments made by a:

(i) Candidate with respect to other buildings or offices or office space used solely for campaign purposes, such as the campaign's headquarters, even if the candidate owns the space used, so long as the:

(a) Space is not the personal residence of the candidate or his or her family; and

(b) Campaign pays a fair market value for use of the space; or

(ii)(a) Member of the General Assembly with respect to an apartment leased solely for use while in the capitol on official business so long as the apartment is not maintained as the officeholder's primary personal residence and per diem is used to pay a proportional share of the rent and utilities incurred in connection with maintaining the apartment.

(b) That share shall be determined using a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the number of days per diem was received in a particular month and the denominator of which shall be the total number of days in that month.

(C) Furthermore, this prohibition does not apply to charges for long distance telephone calls made for campaign or officeholder purposes which may originate from the candidate's residence;

(4) Membership dues, fees, or other gratuitous payments to nonpolitical organizations other than charities.

(A) Campaign funds may not be used to make payments to a country club, health club, recreational facility, or other nonpolitical organization unless the payments are made in connection with a fundraising event or other political event that takes place on the organization's premises.

(B) The prohibition does not include membership dues in an organization that may offer political contacts, such as community-based:

(i) Religious organizations;

DRAFT

- (ii) Ethnic organizations; and
- (iii) Other civic organizations; and

(5) Donations and contributions to churches.

(B) Following the conclusion of the campaign, a candidate may donate or contribute remaining campaign funds to nonprofit, tax-exempt organizations as provided in Arkansas Code § 7-6-203(g)(1)(C).

7 CAR § 3-111. Personal use — Determination by Arkansas Ethics Commission.

(a) Whether an expense or use of campaign funds is to be considered a personal use or personal expense and therefore prohibited by the law and this part is a factual determination to be made by the Arkansas Ethics Commission.

(b) A person may seek an advisory opinion from the commission concerning whether a particular use of funds is to be considered personal use.

7 CAR § 3-112. Automobile expenses.

(a) The payment of travel expenses associated with automobile usage during a campaign is allowable.

(b) If a candidate wishes to use campaign funds for reimbursement of travel expenses, the following must be observed:

(1) The campaign may reimburse the candidate and/or campaign workers for actual miles driven relating to campaign activity at a reasonable mileage rate not to exceed the rate at which the State of Arkansas, pursuant to the General Accounting and Budgetary Procedures Law, Arkansas Code § 19-4-101 et seq., as amended, reimburses its employees for private automobile mileage for official business travel;

(2) The campaign must maintain records showing the date of travel, destination or destinations involved, purpose of travel, and odometer readings of each trip for which reimbursement is allowed;

(3) The candidate will be held responsible to ensure that accurate odometer readings are maintained;

(4) Maintenance costs should be paid from personal funds, not campaign funds, as the rate per mile necessarily includes depreciation and anticipated maintenance costs; and

(5)(A) Nothing in this rule shall prevent a campaign from leasing a vehicle from a third party for campaign use.

(B) The campaign may lease or rent a car for the exclusive use of the campaign, provided it pays the fair market value of all costs associated with the car pursuant to the lease or rent agreement.

(c) Following the election, the candidate may not use campaign or remaining campaign funds to reimburse the candidate or campaign workers for automobile expenses or travel unless the expense is related solely to preelection travel and the request for the reimbursement had been submitted to the campaign prior to the time of election or the expense relates solely to retiring a campaign debt.

7 CAR § 3-113. Use or lease of airplane during campaign.

(a)(1) A campaign or candidate may use campaign funds to lease an airplane for campaign purposes.

(2) As with automobile usage, described in 7 CAR § 3-112, the campaign or the candidate should ensure that accurate records are maintained and that the travel relates to campaign activity before using campaign funds to pay for the lease.

(b)(1) A candidate may lease an airplane to his or her campaign from a company in which he or she has a financial interest and pay for the lease from campaign funds.

(2) The lease payment must not exceed the amount necessary to reimburse the leasing business for actual expenditures made by the business related to the lease.

(3) If the candidate has a significant financial interest in the leasing company, neither the candidate nor the leasing company may make a profit from the lease agreement.

(4) When such a lease occurs, the candidate should report the expenditure by itemizing the:

(A) Amount paid;

(B) Date of payment; and

(C) Name and address of any person, including the candidate, to whom the expenditure was made.

7 CAR § 3-114. Payment of fines associated with campaign.

(a)(1) Except as listed in subsections (b) and (c) of this section, a campaign or candidate may use campaign funds to pay fines associated with the campaign, as in the case of a fine issued by the Arkansas Ethics Commission for the late filing of a report.

(2) The payment of a fine for violations relating to a candidate's campaign duties is a political expenditure connected with the campaign and not a personal expense.

(3) If a fine is paid with campaign funds, it must be reported as a campaign expenditure and itemized on the next Contribution and Expenditure Report due, if exceeding one hundred dollars ($100).

(b) If a candidate or officeholder is assessed a fine by the commission under Arkansas Code § 7-6-218(b)(4)(B) for the use of campaign funds or remaining campaign funds as personal income, a candidate or officeholder shall not use campaign funds or remaining campaign funds to pay the fine.

(c) If a candidate or officeholder uses campaign funds or remaining campaign funds to pay a fine imposed by the commission under Arkansas Code § 7-6-218(b)(4)(B) for the use of campaign funds or remaining campaign funds as personal income, the candidate or officeholder shall be deemed to have taken campaign funds as personal income.

(B) What constitutes a reasonable wage is a factual determination subject to review by the Arkansas Ethics Commission.

(C) Excessive wages may be viewed as personal income in violation of Arkansas Code § 7-6-203.

(c)(1) In addition to the personal income exceptions noted above, a candidate who has an opponent and who during and before the election takes a leave of absence without pay from his or her primary place of employment shall be authorized to use campaign funds as personal income up to the amount of employment lost as a result of the leave.

(2) See 7 CAR § 3-108~~(a)(1)(C)~~ (a)(2)(C).

(2) Candidates or officeholders who end their campaigns either with no remaining campaign funds or in debt may not use or raise campaign funds for travel associated with attending conferences or seminars on general political issues.

(3)(A) Candidates who end campaigns in debt may not seek reimbursement for any post-election travel unless the travel is related to an event or fundraising effort designed for the sole purpose of retiring the campaign debt.

(B) Whether travel solely relates to efforts to retire a debt is a factual determination to be made by the Arkansas Ethics Commission.

(2) Examples of expenditures to which this subsection is applicable are expenditures for utilities and telephone bills.

(c) An expenditure by credit card or in other ways charged to an account must be included in the report for the period during which the charge was made, not in the report for the period during which the statement from the credit card company or charge account was received.

funds or in debt.

(2) In order to determine whether there is a net debt outstanding from a particular election, the candidate must prove net debts outstanding as of the date of the election.

(b) For purposes of this section, "net debts outstanding" means the total amount of unpaid debts, loans, and obligations incurred with respect to the campaign, less the sum of:

(1) The total cash on hand available to pay those debts, loans, and obligations, including:

- (A) Currency;
- (B) Balances on deposit in banks and other financial institutions;

there is no proof of receipt or existence of bill or other documentation of expenditure or indebtedness as of the filing of the final report, shall not be considered as part of the net debts outstanding.

(d) Matters that will not be considered as legitimate campaign debts include, but are not limited to:

(1) Campaign workers' salary bonuses;

(2) Mileage on behalf of the candidate or any member of the candidate's immediate family, unless said mileage was regularly paid by the candidate throughout the campaign; and

(3) Postage, photocopying, meals, lodging or utility bills, or other miscellaneous bills that, during the campaign, were not billed to the campaign nor paid by the campaign, but billed to and/or paid by the candidate or the candidate's family unless, at the time of filing the final report, the candidate is able to provide an itemization of each bill that constitutes the debt and for which retirement is sought.

(e)(1) For purposes of this section, "reasonable and legitimate costs and administrative expenses of debt retirement" means those post-election expenses directly related to a particular debt retirement function, performed not for matters generally incidental to political activity or holding an office, but for matters specifically and solely related to retiring a legitimate campaign debt.

(2) If the expense is for personnel services or staff salaries, such services or salaries must be directly and solely for the express purpose of retiring the campaign debt or debts noted by the candidate in his or her final report and not related to general political functions incidental to holding an office or campaigning for a future office.

(3) An expense is reasonably and legitimately related to debt retirement if it is generated by activity which, but for the existence of a legitimate campaign debt and efforts to retire same, would not otherwise have been undertaken and the related expense not otherwise incurred.

(f)(1) Contributions received for debt retirement shall be treated as contributions to the candidate's previous election, and all campaign contribution limits shall continue to apply.

(2) If a contributor makes a contribution after the general election to retire a debt associated with the general election, the campaign limits applicable to contributions for the general election would apply.

(g)(1) Contributors shall be given notice that the campaign contributions are for the purpose of retiring a campaign debt.

(i)(1) A person shall file a Campaign Contribution and Expenditure Report concerning a campaign debt if, since the last report concerning the debt, the person has received cumulative contributions in excess of five hundred dollars ($500).

(2) The report shall be filed not later than fifteen (15) days after a calendar quarter in which a report becomes required.

(b) If a candidate or officeholder desires to raise funds to retire a prior debt at a time when a different campaign is ongoing, the candidate or officeholder must ensure that the notice explains that the debt to be retired relates to a specific prior campaign and not the current ongoing campaign.

(c) A candidate whose prior campaign debts relate to funds or personal loans and the repayment of such debts or loans would be in the form of reimbursement to the candidate may wait until the current campaign has ended and use remaining campaigning funds to repay prior campaign loans the candidate may have made to his or her campaign.

(d)(1) A candidate whose prior campaign debts relate to funds other than personal loans or personal contributions may not use remaining campaigning funds from a current campaign to repay debts relating to a different campaign.

(2) Instead, the candidate must retire the prior debt in the manner described in 7 CAR § 3-130.

7 CAR § 3-132. Contributions by children and spouses.

listing it as a contribution. She must also disclose Commercial Bank's address and the guarantor's name (if there was a guarantor).

(d) The execution of a guaranty of repayment shall not be deemed a campaign contribution by the guarantor, but actual repayment of the loan by the guarantor shall constitute a campaign contribution and be subject to the campaign contribution limit per contributor per election.

(a) All Contribution and Expenditure Reports filed by candidates shall be verified by affidavit of the candidate or a person acting on the candidate's behalf.

7 CAR § 3-153. Exploratory committees — Contribution limits.

(a)(1) An exploratory committee is a person who receives contributions held to be transferred later to a single candidate.

(b)(1) An exploratory committee is under the same guidelines applicable to maximum contribution limits per election as the candidate's campaign committee.

(2) Contributions to an exploratory committee count toward the maximum limit a candidate may receive.

(c)(1) Expenditures from exploratory committees must be for campaign purposes.

(2) As with any other campaign funds, candidates or their exploratory committees are prohibited from using any campaign funds, including funds given to an exploratory committee, as personal income or for personal purposes.

(d)(1) An exploratory committee may be formed on a candidate's behalf even if the candidate is presently an officeholder and has an existing campaign fund.

(2) The exploratory committee must not be formed for the same office as currently held by the officeholder.

(3) The moneys that make up the existing campaign fund relate to a prior election.

(4) Funds contributed to an exploratory committee will apply toward the contribution limits of the election for which the exploratory committee was formed and are exclusive from funds already maintained in an officeholder account.

(e)(1) Funds raised by the exploratory committee on the candidate's behalf will be treated as contributions if the individual elects to become a candidate.

(2) The contribution limits for the election/office being sought by the individual will apply.

(3) The money contributed will apply against the limits applicable to the primary election for the candidate when, and if, the person decides to run for office.

DRAFT

(f)(1) A potential candidate may have more than one (1) exploratory committee.

(2) If a potential candidate or individual establishes more than one (1) exploratory committee, or if the person elects to run for an office other than the one for which the exploratory committee was receiving contributions, the candidate must dispose of the funds received by the exploratory committee for the office not sought pursuant to 7 CAR § 3-127 and/or Arkansas Code § 7-6-203(g)(1)(A) – (E) within thirty (30) days of the close of filing for public office.

(h)(1)(A) More than one (1) exploratory committee for a potential candidate may exist simultaneously that designate the same or different campaigns to be explored.

(B) If the committees are for the same office (e.g., different committees in different counties), the contributions received will be applied toward the limitations for contributions as noted herein in subsection (e).

(C) The committees should keep accurate and separate bank accounts and be able to verify that no contributor has given more than the maximum in the aggregate to any exploratory committees.

(D) As an example, if a contributor gives the maximum amount to the candidate's Pulaski County Exploratory Committee for Governor, such contributor could not give any money to any other exploratory committee for the same candidate, same office.

(2) If the committees are for different offices, the candidate must ensure that the funds retained by the committee for the office not sought are disposed pursuant to 7 CAR § 3-127 and Arkansas Code § 7-6-203(g)(1)(A) – (E) and subsection (f) above.

(i)(1)(A) If the candidate ultimately seeks the office being explored, the funds raised by the exploratory committee should be transferred to the candidate's campaign committee and reported in the final report pursuant to 7 CAR § 3-152 and Arkansas Code § 7-6-216.

(B) The amount or amounts a person contributes to an exploratory committee shall count towards the limit on campaign contributions that such person may make to the candidate.

(2) If the candidate seeks another office, the committee should:

(A) File a final report;

(B) Note this fact on the report; and

(C) Dispose of the funds pursuant to 7 CAR § 3-127 and Arkansas Code § 7-6-203(g)(1)(A) – (E).

(3)(A) If the person elects not to seek office, the committee must file a final report and note this fact on the report.

(B) Since the person is not going to be a candidate, any funds remaining in the exploratory committee's account should be disposed pursuant to 7 CAR § 3-127 and Arkansas Code § 7-6-203(g)(1)(A) – (E).

(C) Within thirty (30) days after the end of the month in which the candidate decides not to run for office or the committee no longer intends to accept contributions on his or her behalf, the committee must file its final report and note how any remaining funds were disposed of by the committee.

(D) The funds should be disposed pursuant to one (1) of the five (5) options in Arkansas Code § 7-6-203(g)(1).

(E) The Arkansas Ethics Commission encourages exploratory committees to consider refunding the contributions on a pro rata basis to the contributors.

- (ii) Concludes a campaign or otherwise withdraws from the election.

(e) No campaign contribution exceeding one hundred dollars ($100) shall be received in cash, nor shall any campaign expenditure exceeding fifty dollars ($50.00) be made in cash.

(f) All contributions and expenditures on behalf of a campaign activity, other than in-kind contributions and expenditures, in excess of the amounts mentioned in subsection (e) of this section shall be made by a:

(1) Written instrument containing the name of the donor and the name of the payee;

(2) Credit card or a debit card where the transaction results in a paper record signed by the cardholder, provided that the paper record contains the following information for the cardholder at the time of making the contribution:

(3) If a political party elects to use a caucus, rather than a primary election, in which to select its candidate, the caucus shall be treated as an election for campaign finance purposes and the maximum contribution limits shall be in effect.

7 CAR § 3-105. Limitations on soliciting and accepting contributions.

(a) After the date of an election at which the person is a candidate for nomination or election, the person shall not accept campaign contributions for that election except for the sole purpose of raising funds to retire campaign debt.

(b)(1) Municipalities, counties, and townships may establish reasonable limitations on:

(B) Limits on contributions to local candidates at amounts lower than those set by state law; and

(2) Enforcement of any limitation established by a local jurisdiction is the responsibility of the municipality, county, or township establishing the limitation.

7 CAR § 3-106. In-kind contributions — Reporting and value.

(a) In addition to monetary contributions, candidates are required to report the receipt of any in-kind contributions, as defined in 7 CAR § 3-101(16).

(b)(1) For reporting purposes, the value of an in-kind contribution shall be its fair market value if it had been purchased, sold, or leased in the ordinary course of business.

(2) An in-kind contribution constitutes a contribution.

(3) Those transactions that are specifically excluded from the definition of contribution are likewise excluded from the definition of in-kind contribution.

(c)(1) A contributor makes an in-kind contribution whenever, in conjunction with the nomination or election of a specific candidate, such contributor purchases, sells, or leases an item or provides a service to or on behalf of the candidate without charge or for a charge that is less than the fair market value of the item or service provided.

(2) The difference between the fair market value and the charge shall be the value of the in-kind contribution.

(3) The donor of the item or service shall place the value on the in-kind contribution when given.

(4) The candidate or someone designated to act on his or her behalf, such as the treasurer of the campaign, may question the value set by the donor if it appears unreasonable and shall revalue the in-kind contribution to a reasonable value.

(5) The value of an in-kind contribution is a factual determination that shall be made by the Arkansas Ethics Commission.

(d)(1) The transfer of anything of value by a political party to a candidate, other than a direct contribution or those items specifically listed as exemptions in Arkansas Code § 7-6-201(5), shall constitute an in-kind contribution.

(2) A political advertisement by a political party on behalf of a specifically named candidate expressly advocating the election of the candidate or the defeat of the candidate's opponent constitutes an in-kind contribution.

(3) However, public efforts, including political advertisements, by political parties to promote the party's platform or to inform the public of the party's views on certain issues, as opposed to promoting the election or defeat of specific candidates, shall not constitute an in-kind contribution to any candidate.

(e)(1) The costs associated with any news story, commentary, or editorial distributed in the ordinary course of business by a broadcasting station, newspaper, or other periodical publication does not constitute an in-kind contribution.

(2) Costs associated with nonpartisan activities designed to encourage individuals to register to vote or to vote do not constitute in-kind contributions.

(3) Finally, the costs associated with internal organizational communications of business, labor, professional, or other associations that merely endorse a candidate do not constitute in-kind contributions.

(f)(1) Political advertising, as detailed in subsection (d) of this section, supporting more than one (1) candidate and other forms of political marketing may be an in-kind contribution.

(2) If political advertising or other mass political marketing technique supports more than one (1) candidate and is determined to be an in-kind contribution, the amount of the contribution shall be determined and reported by dividing the full value of the political advertising or marketing by the number of persons benefited.

(3) Each candidate specifically listed by the advertisement shall assume the pro rata share of the costs of the contribution.

7 CAR § 3-107. Volunteer services — Exception to in-kind contribution.

(a)(1) In addition to the other exceptions noted in this part, the value of volunteer services provided without compensation do not constitute an in-kind contribution.

(2) Accordingly, an individual may volunteer any personal service provided he or she is not compensated for the service by any other individual or person.

(3) This applies both to manual tasks (i.e., stuffing envelopes, answering telephones, etc.) and to specialized services (i.e., services provided by musicians, accountants, etc.).

(4) Whether a contribution has occurred depends upon whether the work performed is considered volunteer services.

(5)(A) Whether time is spent on a volunteer basis depends upon whether the services are rendered during time that is the individual's own time to spend as he or she sees fit.

(B) If services are rendered after working hours, they will typically be viewed as exempted volunteer services.

(b)(1) In accordance with subsection (a) of this section, certain professional services, such as legal and accounting services, that typically have fees associated with them may be provided to a candidate on a volunteer basis, provided the need for the services arises from the campaign.

(2) For example, accounting or bookkeeping services involved with handling the candidate's campaign financing may be provided to a candidate on a volunteer basis and will not count as an in-kind contribution even if no fees are charged.

(c)(1) An individual may use his or her home or the recreational room of his or her residential complex for a candidate and/or party-related activities, and such use will not be deemed a contribution.

(2) Any nominal fee charged for the use of the room is not considered a contribution.

(3)(A) An individual may buy food, beverage, and invitations used in connection with a candidate or party-related activity conducted in his or her home or the recreational room of his or her residential complex and such expenses will not be considered an in-kind contribution, provided the expenditures do not exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000) per candidate per election.

(B) Any amounts over one thousand dollars ($1,000) would need to be duly reported as an in-kind contribution.

(d) An individual may volunteer and obtain the use of a church or community center room for a candidate or party-related activities without incurring an in-kind contribution, provided the room is used on a regular basis without charge by members of the community without regard to political affiliation and for noncommercial purposes.

(e) An individual may spend a reasonable amount for his or her normal living expenses incurred while engaging in volunteer activity.

7 CAR § 3-108. Personal use of campaign funds.

(a)(1) A candidate shall not take campaign funds as personal income.

(2) A candidate shall not take any campaign funds as income for his or her spouse or dependent children, except that:

(A) An opposed candidate may employ his or her spouse or dependent children as campaign workers;

(B) The use of campaign funds to pay a candidate's childcare expenses shall not be considered a taking of campaign funds as personal income if the campaign funds are used to pay for childcare for the time the candidate is engaging in campaign activity and the childcare expenses would not exist in the absence of the campaign; and

(C) An opposed candidate who, during and before the election, takes a leave of absence without pay from his or her primary place of employment shall be authorized to take campaign funds before the election as personal income up to the amount of employment income lost as a result of the leave of absence.

(b) Campaign funds that are retained as remaining campaign funds are treated as campaign funds and may not be taken as personal income or as income for the candidate's spouse or dependent children.

7 CAR § 3-109. Use of campaign/remaining campaign funds — Personal use defined.

DRAFT

(a)(1) For purposes of this section and throughout this part, a candidate or officeholder who uses campaign funds or remaining campaign funds to fulfill any commitment, obligation, or expense that would exist regardless of the candidate's campaign or officeholder activity and an officeholder who uses remaining campaign funds to fulfill any commitment, obligation, or expense that would exist regardless of the duties and responsibilities of his or her office shall be deemed to have taken campaign funds as personal income.

(2) Candidates or officeholders may use campaign funds or remaining campaign funds to fulfill any commitment, obligation, or expense:

(A) Authorized by law;

(B) Permitted by an Arkansas Ethics Commission rule or opinion at the time of the expenditure; or

(C) Reasonably and legitimately related to a campaign or officeholder activity.

(b) The use of campaign funds to purchase a cake or other perishable item of food at a fundraising event held by a volunteer agency, as defined in Arkansas Code § 16-6-103, shall not be considered a taking of campaign funds as personal income.

(c) The use of campaign funds to purchase advertising prior to the date the final report is due to be filed thanking voters for their support shall not be considered a taking of campaign funds as personal income.

(d) The use of campaign funds to pay a candidate's own personal expenses for food, lodging, or travel to attend a national presidential nominating convention shall not be considered a taking of campaign funds as personal income.

(e) If an expense is the result of campaign or officeholder activity, then it is not considered personal use and not prohibited by those sections and subsections herein limiting the personal use of campaign funds or remaining campaign funds.

(f) For those candidates who lose an election and have remaining campaign funds or for those officeholders who are no longer in office, personal use of such funds remains prohibited for expenses unless the expenses relate to a future candidacy.

(g) Pursuant to Arkansas Code § 7-6-203, knowingly taking campaign funds as personal income is a:

(1) Class B felony if the value of the benefit is twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) or more;

(2) Class C felony if the value of the benefit is five thousand dollars ($5,000) or more but less than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000);

(3) Class D felony if the value of the benefit is two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) or more but less than five thousand dollars ($5,000); or

(4) Class A misdemeanor if the value of the benefit is less than two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500).

(h) It is an affirmative defense to a prosecution for taking campaign funds as personal income if the candidate or officeholder shows by a preponderance of the evidence that the personal property was retained as remaining campaign funds and the candidate or officeholder:

(1) Reported the personal property as campaign funds; and

(2) Retained or disposed of the personal property in the manner that is required by law for campaign funds.

7 CAR § 3-110. Personal expenses — Prohibited uses.

(a) Campaign funds may not be used to pay personal expenses.

(b) The following expenses are considered personal expenses per se:

(1) Household food items and supplies.

(A) This includes:

(i) Food purchased for day-to-day consumption in the personal residence; and

(ii) Supplies purchased to maintain the personal residence.

(B) It does not include:

(i) Food and supplies for fundraising activities, even if they take place in the candidate's home; and

(ii) Food or refreshments for meetings and gatherings related to the candidate's campaign;

(2) Clothing.

(A) This includes all attire for political or personal functions.

(B)(i) It does not include clothing of nominal value such as T-shirts or caps imprinted with a campaign logo or slogan or a candidate's name.

(ii) Such items may be purchased with campaign funds and are a legitimate campaign expense;

(3) Mortgage, rent, and utility payments.

(A) This includes any payments with respect to a personal residence of the candidate or his or her family, even if a portion of the residence is used by the campaign.

(B) It does not include payments made by a:

(i) Candidate with respect to other buildings or offices or office space used solely for campaign purposes, such as the campaign's headquarters, even if the candidate owns the space used, so long as the:

(a) Space is not the personal residence of the candidate or his or her family; and

(b) Campaign pays a fair market value for use of the space; or

(ii)(a) Member of the General Assembly with respect to an apartment leased solely for use while in the capitol on official business so long as the apartment is not maintained as the officeholder's primary personal residence and per diem is used to pay a proportional share of the rent and utilities incurred in connection with maintaining the apartment.

(b) That share shall be determined using a fraction, the numerator of which shall be the number of days per diem was received in a particular month and the denominator of which shall be the total number of days in that month.

(C) Furthermore, this prohibition does not apply to charges for long distance telephone calls made for campaign or officeholder purposes which may originate from the candidate's residence;

(4) Membership dues, fees, or other gratuitous payments to nonpolitical organizations other than charities.

(A) Campaign funds may not be used to make payments to a country club, health club, recreational facility, or other nonpolitical organization unless the payments are made in connection with a fundraising event or other political event that takes place on the organization's premises.

(B) The prohibition does not include membership dues in an organization that may offer political contacts, such as community-based:

- (i) Religious organizations;
- (ii) Ethnic organizations; and
- (iii) Other civic organizations; and

(5) Donations and contributions to churches.

(A) Donations and contributions to churches are not allowed from campaign funds while a candidate is seeking office unless the candidate had, prior to deciding to run for office, regularly given money to the church or had been a previous member of the particular church to which the expenditure is intended.

(B) Following the conclusion of the campaign, a candidate may donate or contribute remaining campaign funds to nonprofit, tax-exempt organizations as provided in Arkansas Code § 7-6-203(g)(1)(C).

7 CAR § 3-111. Personal use — Determination by Arkansas Ethics Commission.

(a) Whether an expense or use of campaign funds is to be considered a personal use or personal expense and therefore prohibited by the law and this part is a factual determination to be made by the Arkansas Ethics Commission.

(b) A person may seek an advisory opinion from the commission concerning whether a particular use of funds is to be considered personal use.

7 CAR § 3-112. Automobile expenses.

(a) The payment of travel expenses associated with automobile usage during a campaign is allowable.

(b) If a candidate wishes to use campaign funds for reimbursement of travel expenses, the following must be observed:

(1) The campaign may reimburse the candidate and/or campaign workers for actual miles driven relating to campaign activity at a reasonable mileage rate not to exceed the rate at which the State of Arkansas, pursuant to the General Accounting and Budgetary Procedures Law, Arkansas Code § 19-4-101 et seq., as amended, reimburses its employees for private automobile mileage for official business travel;

(2) The campaign must maintain records showing the date of travel, destination or destinations involved, purpose of travel, and odometer readings of each trip for which reimbursement is allowed;

(3) The candidate will be held responsible to ensure that accurate odometer readings are maintained;

(4) Maintenance costs should be paid from personal funds, not campaign funds, as the rate per mile necessarily includes depreciation and anticipated maintenance costs; and

(5)(A) Nothing in this rule shall prevent a campaign from leasing a vehicle from a third party for campaign use.

(B) The campaign may lease or rent a car for the exclusive use of the campaign, provided it pays the fair market value of all costs associated with the car pursuant to the lease or rent agreement.

(c) Following the election, the candidate may not use campaign or remaining campaign funds to reimburse the candidate or campaign workers for automobile expenses or travel unless the expense is related solely to preelection travel and the request for the reimbursement had been submitted to the campaign prior to the time of election or the expense relates solely to retiring a campaign debt.

7 CAR § 3-113. Use or lease of airplane during campaign.

(a)(1) A campaign or candidate may use campaign funds to lease an airplane for campaign purposes.

(2) As with automobile usage, described in 7 CAR § 3-112, the campaign or the candidate should ensure that accurate records are maintained and that the travel relates to campaign activity before using campaign funds to pay for the lease.

(b)(1) A candidate may lease an airplane to his or her campaign from a company in which he or she has a financial interest and pay for the lease from campaign funds.

(2) The lease payment must not exceed the amount necessary to reimburse the leasing business for actual expenditures made by the business related to the lease.

(3) If the candidate has a significant financial interest in the leasing company, neither the candidate nor the leasing company may make a profit from the lease agreement.

(4) When such a lease occurs, the candidate should report the expenditure by itemizing the:

(A) Amount paid;

(B) Date of payment; and

(C) Name and address of any person, including the candidate, to whom the expenditure was made.

7 CAR § 3-114. Payment of fines associated with campaign.

(a)(1) Except as listed in subsections (b) and (c) of this section, a campaign or candidate may use campaign funds to pay fines associated with the campaign, as in the case of a fine issued by the Arkansas Ethics Commission for the late filing of a report.

(2) The payment of a fine for violations relating to a candidate's campaign duties is a political expenditure connected with the campaign and not a personal expense.

(3) If a fine is paid with campaign funds, it must be reported as a campaign expenditure and itemized on the next Contribution and Expenditure Report due, if exceeding one hundred dollars ($100).

(b) If a candidate or officeholder is assessed a fine by the commission under Arkansas Code § 7-6-218(b)(4)(B) for the use of campaign funds or remaining campaign funds as personal income, a candidate or officeholder shall not use campaign funds or remaining campaign funds to pay the fine.

(c) If a candidate or officeholder uses campaign funds or remaining campaign funds to pay a fine imposed by the commission under Arkansas Code § 7-6-218(b)(4)(B) for the use of campaign funds or remaining campaign funds as personal income, the candidate or officeholder shall be deemed to have taken campaign funds as personal income.

7 CAR § 3-115. Campaign expenditures — Use of funds to employ campaign workers, including the candidate and family members.

(a)(1) A candidate may:

(A) Use campaign funds to employ people to work for the campaign; and

(B) Pay those employees reasonable wages or expenses, provided payment relates to campaign activity.

(2) A candidate or the campaign is allowed to hire employees or contract labor on a temporary basis to assist in such campaign matters as:

(A) Conducting polls;

(B) Providing transportation for electors to the polls;

(C) Posting signs and other forms of political advertising;

(D) Handling mail and telephone solicitation; and

(E) Other tasks related to campaign activity.

(b)(1) A candidate who is unopposed may not use campaign funds to employ family members.

(2)(A) If the candidate has an opponent, he or she may employ members of his or her family as campaign workers, provided the wage paid is reasonable.

(B) What constitutes a reasonable wage is a factual determination subject to review by the Arkansas Ethics Commission.

(C) Excessive wages may be viewed as personal income in violation of Arkansas Code § 7-6-203.

(c)(1) In addition to the personal income exceptions noted above, a candidate who has an opponent and who during and before the election takes a leave of absence without pay from his or her primary place of employment shall be authorized to use campaign funds as personal income up to the amount of employment lost as a result of the leave.

(2) See 7 CAR § 3-108 (a)(2)(C).

7 CAR § 3-116. Campaign expenditures — Political conferences or seminars.

(a)(1) Candidates may use campaign funds to reimburse themselves for attendance to in-state or out-of-state conferences or seminars on general political issues.

(2) During the campaign, funds may be used to reimburse campaign staff and spouses, provided their attendance to these conferences relates to the campaign.

(3)(A) After an election, remaining campaign funds may not be used to reimburse campaign workers, staff, or spouses of either the candidate or the workers for attendance at conferences or seminars.

(B) Officeholders are permitted to use remaining campaign funds to reimburse only themselves for travel associated with attending conferences or seminars on general political issues.

(b)(1) After an election, officeholders may use remaining campaign funds for reimbursement of travel associated with attending conferences or seminars on general political issues if there are remaining campaign funds.

(2) Remaining campaign funds must have been declared properly at the end of the election and reported in a timely fashion, and the use of the remaining campaign funds must be reported on a Reporting Form.

(c)(1) The use of campaign funds or remaining campaign funds after an election, as outlined in subsections (a) and (b) of this section, is only available for those candidates or officeholders who ended their respective campaigns with remaining campaign funds.

(2) Candidates or officeholders who end their campaigns either with no remaining campaign funds or in debt may not use or raise campaign funds for travel associated with attending conferences or seminars on general political issues.

(3)(A) Candidates who end campaigns in debt may not seek reimbursement for any post-election travel unless the travel is related to an event or fundraising effort designed for the sole purpose of retiring the campaign debt.

(B) Whether travel solely relates to efforts to retire a debt is a factual determination to be made by the Arkansas Ethics Commission.

7 CAR § 3-117. Time of making expenditure.

(a) The date of a campaign or post-campaign expenditure is the date the amount is readily ascertainable by the person making the expenditure, except as provided in subsection (b) of this section.

(b)(1) If, under normal business practices, the amount of an expenditure is not known or readily ascertainable until receipt of a periodic bill, the date of the expenditure is the date the bill is received.

(2) Examples of expenditures to which this subsection is applicable are expenditures for utilities and telephone bills.

(c) An expenditure by credit card or in other ways charged to an account must be included in the report for the period during which the charge was made, not in the report for the period during which the statement from the credit card company or charge account was received.

7 CAR § 3-118. Campaign cash expenditures.

(a) Except as noted in subsection (c) of this section, no campaign expenditure in excess of fifty dollars ($50.00) shall be made in cash.

(b) All expenditures on behalf of a campaign activity, in excess of fifty dollars ($50.00), shall be made by a written instrument containing the name of the payee.

(c)(1) The payment of filing fees may be in cash even though the amount exceeds fifty dollars ($50.00).

(2) The candidate shall:

(A) Obtain a receipt for the payment; and

(B) Report it as either a loan or contribution to the campaign and also as a campaign expenditure.

7 CAR § 3-119. Description of campaign expenditures.

(a) The report disclosing a campaign expenditure for goods or services must describe the category or categories of goods or services received in exchange for the expenditure.

(b) It is not sufficient simply to list the payee.

7 CAR § 3-120. Reporting expenditures by credit card.

(a)(1) In addition to the reporting requirements outlined in 7 CAR §§ 3-117(c), 3-119, and 3-120, report of an expenditure by credit card must identify the vendor who receives the payment from the credit card company.

(2) The nature of the expenditures should be included in the applicable category on the Contribution and Expenditure Report.

(b)(1) Expenditures by credit card should not be reflected or reported as lump sum expenditures.

(2) Instead, expenditures by credit card are to be itemized showing:

(A) Name of vendor;

(B) Amount of payment or expense;

(C) Date of expense; and

(D) Item purchased or reason for expenditure.

7 CAR § 3-121. Allowable expenditures — Purchase of advertisements and awards.

(a)(1) Candidates and officeholders may purchase advertisements in publications of charitable, civic, and educational organizations.

(2) This is permissible for officeholders even if the expenses are related to their holding office and not reimbursable by the state.

(3) Campaign and remaining campaign funds may be used to buy items such as ads in school yearbooks, as these purchases serve to increase public visibility for the candidates and officeholders.

(b)(1) Following an election, but not before, a candidate or officeholder who ends his or her campaign with remaining campaign funds may use those funds to purchase items given as awards in recognition of accomplishments where they are presented by a current officeholder in person.

(2) Such items include the purchase of United States and state flags flown at the State Capitol and given to schools in subsequent ceremonies.

7 CAR § 3-122. Allowable expenditures — Purchase of banquet tickets for charitable, civic, or political events.

(a)(1) Candidates may purchase tickets from charities, civic organizations, and political parties for banquets or other similar special social events.

(2) This includes the purchase of a table if the customary and normal practice of the banquet is the purchasing of a table as opposed to individual tickets.

(3) Purchase of tickets for a candidate's spouse and campaign workers is likewise permissible with campaign funds.

(4) The presence at a banquet increases public visibility of candidates.

(5) If the candidate purchases a table of seats or tickets, the candidate shall make all reasonable efforts to attend the banquet.

(b)(1) Officeholders who ended their campaigns with remaining campaign funds may use these funds to purchase tickets from charities, civic organizations, and political parties for banquets or other similar special social events.

(2) The presence of officeholders increases the public visibility of officeholders and, for that reason, officeholders who purchase tickets should make all reasonable efforts to attend the banquet.

(3) Officeholders may use remaining campaign funds to purchase a ticket for a spouse, but remaining campaign funds should not be used to purchase tickets for:

- (A) State Capitol staff;
- (B) Current staff; or
- (C) Former campaign workers.

7 CAR § 3-123. Allowable expenditures — Office equipment.

(a) Candidates and officeholders may use campaign or remaining campaign funds for lease, rental, or use charges of any ordinary and necessary office equipment including, but not limited to:

- (4) Facsimile machines;
- (5) Computer hardware and software;
- (6) Printers; and

(b) Party committees, candidate committees, and political committees organized for ongoing political activities may purchase space or office equipment for ongoing political concerns.

7 CAR § 3-124. Allowable expenditures — Miscellaneous campaign-related expenditures.

(a)(1) In addition to those expenditures listed throughout this part, candidates and officeholders are free to expend campaign funds on any purpose designed to further their campaign or office as long as it is not for personal income or otherwise prohibited by law.

(2) Examples of other miscellaneous expenses on which candidates or officeholders may lawfully expend money include, but are not limited to:

(A) Flowers, sympathy gifts, or other nominal memorial items to a constituent's funeral or family;

(B) Hiring public halls and music for political meetings, furnishing music, uniforms, banners, or fireworks for political clubs, parades, or like events, and for related advertising of same;

(C) Printing and circulating:

(i) Political communications;

(ii) Sample ballots; or

(iii) Ballot labels; and

(D) Sponsorship of a sports team.

(b)(1) This list is not exhaustive.

(2) As noted, the determination whether a campaign expense is allowable is a factual determination to be made by the Arkansas Ethics Commission.

(3) The commission may periodically issue advisory opinions determining allowable expenditures and such opinions should be considered as an addition to any listing of expenditures herein.

7 CAR § 3-125. Campaign assets.

(a)(1) At the time when the candidate's final report is due, the candidate shall:

(A) Determine the current status of the campaign account; and

(B) Ascertain whether the campaign ended with remaining campaign funds or in debt.

(2) In order to determine whether there is a net debt outstanding from a particular election, the candidate must prove net debts outstanding as of the date of the election.

(b) For purposes of this section, "net debts outstanding" means the total amount of unpaid debts, loans, and obligations incurred with respect to the campaign, less the sum of:

(1) The total cash on hand available to pay those debts, loans, and obligations, including:

- (A) Currency;
- (B) Balances on deposit in banks and other financial institutions;

- (B) Refunds;
- (C) Returns; or
- (D) Receivables.

(c) For purposes of this section, any bill or matter not listed as a debt as of the filing of the final report and any obligation not included on the final report and for which there is no proof of receipt or existence of bill or other documentation of expenditure or indebtedness as of the filing of the final report, shall not be considered as part of the net debts outstanding.

(d) Matters that will not be considered as legitimate campaign debts include, but are not limited to:

- (1) Campaign workers' salary bonuses;

(2) Mileage on behalf of the candidate or any member of the candidate's immediate family, unless said mileage was regularly paid by the candidate throughout the campaign; and

(3) Postage, photocopying, meals, lodging or utility bills, or other miscellaneous bills that, during the campaign, were not billed to the campaign nor paid by the campaign, but billed to and/or paid by the candidate or the candidate's family unless, at the time of filing the final report, the candidate is able to provide an itemization of each bill that constitutes the debt and for which retirement is sought.

(e)(1) For purposes of this section, "reasonable and legitimate costs and administrative expenses of debt retirement" means those post-election expenses directly related to a particular debt retirement function, performed not for matters generally incidental to political activity or holding an office, but for matters specifically and solely related to retiring a legitimate campaign debt.

(2) If the expense is for personnel services or staff salaries, such services or salaries must be directly and solely for the express purpose of retiring the campaign debt or debts noted by the candidate in his or her final report and not related to general political functions incidental to holding an office or campaigning for a future office.

(3) If there is another ongoing campaign account, candidates or officeholders should ensure that a separate account is established for the purpose of retiring the prior campaign debts.

(4) Remaining campaign funds from a current campaign account, however, may be used to retire the debt, as explained in subsections (b) and (d) of this section, provided the candidate has ended the current campaign and the debt relates to personal loans to a prior campaign.

(b) If a candidate or officeholder desires to raise funds to retire a prior debt at a time when a different campaign is ongoing, the candidate or officeholder must ensure that the notice explains that the debt to be retired relates to a specific prior campaign and not the current ongoing campaign.

(c) A candidate whose prior campaign debts relate to funds or personal loans and the repayment of such debts or loans would be in the form of reimbursement to the candidate may wait until the current campaign has ended and use remaining campaigning funds to repay prior campaign loans the candidate may have made to his or her campaign.

(d)(1) A candidate whose prior campaign debts relate to funds other than personal loans or personal contributions may not use remaining campaigning funds from a current campaign to repay debts relating to a different campaign.

(2) Instead, the candidate must retire the prior debt in the manner described in 7 CAR § 3-130.

7 CAR § 3-132. Contributions by children and spouses.

(b) Contributions by independent children and spouses of contributors will be attributed to the independent children and the spouse individually, provided the independent children or the spouse intended to make such a contribution on his or her own behalf.

7 CAR § 3-133. Political party and group activities — Exceptions to the definitions of contribution and expenditure.

For purposes of this part and laws governing campaign finance, the terms contribution and expenditure shall not include:

(a) All Contribution and Expenditure Reports filed by candidates shall be verified by affidavit of the candidate or a person acting on the candidate's behalf.

(2) However, assertion of the affirmative defense provision shall not be construed to remove the duty to file a Statement of Financial Interest or authorize a candidate to knowingly fail to file a Statement of Financial Interest required under Arkansas Code § 21-8-701 et seq.

7 CAR § 3-152. Exploratory committees — Registration and reporting.

(a)(1) An exploratory committee is a person that receives contributions held to be transferred later to a single candidate.

(2) It shall not include:

(A) A political party that meets the definition of a political party under Arkansas Code § 7-1-101 or the requirements of Arkansas Code § 7-7-205; or

(B) The candidate's own campaign committee.

(b)(1) Exploratory committees must register within fifteen (15) days after receiving contributions during a calendar year that, in the aggregate, exceed five hundred dollars ($500).

(2) The committee must also disclose the name, address, and telephone numbers of the committee and its officers as well as the name of the person who, upon becoming a candidate, is intended to receive the contributions received by the committee.

(3) The place of filing for an exploratory committee for a state or district office shall be the Secretary of State's office, and the place of filing for an exploratory committee for a county, municipal, township, or school district office shall be the county clerk's office.

(c)(1)(A) No later than twenty (20) days after the end of each month, an exploratory committee shall file a report indicating the total amount of contributions received during the filing period and/or the previous month and disclose:

(i) The names and addresses of persons contributing in excess of two hundred dollars ($200), along with the contributor's principal place of business, employer, occupation, and the amount contributed;

(iii) For each single expenditure that exceeds one hundred dollars ($100), an itemization including the:

(a) Amount of the expenditure;

(b) Name and address of the person to whom the expenditure was made; and

(c) Date the expenditure was made.

(B) The first report shall be filed for the month in which the committee files its registration.

(C) A final report shall be filed within thirty (30) days after the end of the month in which the committee either:

(i) Transfers the contributions received to the candidate; or

(ii) No longer intends to accept contributions on behalf of the candidate.

(2) The reports required by this section shall be filed in electronic form through the official website of the Secretary of State.

(3) The Arkansas Ethics Commission shall approve the format used by the Secretary of State for the filing of exploratory reports in electronic form to ensure that all required information is requested.

(4) The official website of the Secretary of State shall allow for searches of exploratory committee report information filed in electronic form.

(d) An exploratory committee under this section may file reports in paper form under this section if:

(1) The exploratory committee does not have access to the technology necessary to submit reports in electronic form; and

(2) Submitting reports in electronic form would constitute a substantial hardship for the exploratory committee.

(e) An exploratory committee shall not accept contributions after the filing of a final report.

7 CAR § 3-153. Exploratory committees — Contribution limits.

(a)(1) An exploratory committee is a person who receives contributions held to be transferred later to a single candidate.

(2) Furthermore, an exploratory committee is one designated by a candidate to promote the candidate's campaign and to serve as recipient of all contributions and the distributor of all expenditures for a candidate prior to the time the candidate formally announces his or her intentions to run for office.

(b)(1) An exploratory committee is under the same guidelines applicable to maximum contribution limits per election as the candidate's campaign committee.

(2) Contributions to an exploratory committee count toward the maximum limit a candidate may receive.

(c)(1) Expenditures from exploratory committees must be for campaign purposes.

(2) As with any other campaign funds, candidates or their exploratory committees are prohibited from using any campaign funds, including funds given to an exploratory committee, as personal income or for personal purposes.

(d)(1) An exploratory committee may be formed on a candidate's behalf even if the candidate is presently an officeholder and has an existing campaign fund.

(2) The exploratory committee must not be formed for the same office as currently held by the officeholder.

(3) The moneys that make up the existing campaign fund relate to a prior election.

(4) Funds contributed to an exploratory committee will apply toward the contribution limits of the election for which the exploratory committee was formed and are exclusive from funds already maintained in an officeholder account.

(e)(1) Funds raised by the exploratory committee on the candidate's behalf will be treated as contributions if the individual elects to become a candidate.

(2) The contribution limits for the election/office being sought by the individual will apply.

(3) The money contributed will apply against the limits applicable to the primary election for the candidate when, and if, the person decides to run for office.

(f)(1) A potential candidate may have more than one (1) exploratory committee.

(2) If a potential candidate or individual establishes more than one (1) exploratory committee, or if the person elects to run for an office other than the one for which the exploratory committee was receiving contributions, the candidate must dispose of the funds received by the exploratory committee for the office not sought pursuant to 7 CAR § 3-127 and/or Arkansas Code § 7-6-203(g)(1)(A) – (E) within thirty (30) days of the close of filing for public office.

(g)(1) Exploratory committees must maintain bank accounts separate from:

(A) The candidate's personal account; and

(B) Any concurrent officeholder/candidate's account.

(2) When the candidate announces for election, the exploratory committee may convert the funds remaining in its account to the candidate's campaign account.

(h)(1)(A) More than one (1) exploratory committee for a potential candidate may exist simultaneously that designate the same or different campaigns to be explored.

DRAFT

(B) If the committees are for the same office (e.g., different committees in different counties), the contributions received will be applied toward the limitations for contributions as noted herein in subsection (e).

(C) The committees should keep accurate and separate bank accounts and be able to verify that no contributor has given more than the maximum in the aggregate to any exploratory committees.

(D) As an example, if a contributor gives the maximum amount to the candidate's Pulaski County Exploratory Committee for Governor, such contributor could not give any money to any other exploratory committee for the same candidate, same office.

(2) If the committees are for different offices, the candidate must ensure that the funds retained by the committee for the office not sought are disposed pursuant to 7 CAR § 3-127 and Arkansas Code § 7-6-203(g)(1)(A) – (E) and subsection (f) above.

(i)(1)(A) If the candidate ultimately seeks the office being explored, the funds raised by the exploratory committee should be transferred to the candidate's campaign committee and reported in the final report pursuant to 7 CAR § 3-152 and Arkansas Code § 7-6-216.

(B) The amount or amounts a person contributes to an exploratory committee shall count towards the limit on campaign contributions that such person may make to the candidate.

(2) If the candidate seeks another office, the committee should:

(A) File a final report;

(B) Note this fact on the report; and

(C) Dispose of the funds pursuant to 7 CAR § 3-127 and Arkansas Code § 7-6-203(g)(1)(A) – (E).

(3)(A) If the person elects not to seek office, the committee must file a final report and note this fact on the report.

(B) Since the person is not going to be a candidate, any funds remaining in the exploratory committee's account should be disposed pursuant to 7 CAR § 3-127 and Arkansas Code § 7-6-203(g)(1)(A) – (E).

(C) Within thirty (30) days after the end of the month in which the candidate decides not to run for office or the committee no longer intends to accept contributions on his or her behalf, the committee must file its final report and note how any remaining funds were disposed of by the committee.

(D) The funds should be disposed pursuant to one (1) of the five (5) options in Arkansas Code § 7-6-203(g)(1).

(E) The Arkansas Ethics Commission encourages exploratory committees to consider refunding the contributions on a pro rata basis to the contributors.

(F) The funds must not be used by the candidate for personal purposes.

7 CAR § 3-154. Prohibition against a person convicted of a public trust crime filing or running as a candidate for office or holding office.

(a) If a person has pleaded guilty or nolo contendere to or has been found guilty of a public trust crime, he or she shall not:

(1) File as a candidate for:

(A) A constitutional office;

(B) A county elected office; or

(2) A person who has pleaded guilty or nolo contendere to or has been found guilty of a public trust crime that was sealed or expunged as described in subdivision (b)(1) of this section:

(A) Upon inquiry, shall disclose the fact and nature of the crime which the person pleaded guilty or nolo contendere to or was found guilty of; and

(B) Shall not publicly state or affirm under oath that the:

(i) Conduct underlying the plea or finding did not occur;

(ii) Record of the underlying plea or finding does not exist;

or

(iii) Person has not been convicted of a criminal offense.

(3) If a person has pleaded guilty or nolo contendere to or has been found guilty of a public trust crime or similar offense that was sealed under the Comprehensive Criminal Record Sealing Act of 2013 or any sealing or expungement act in any jurisdiction, evidence of the plea, finding, and conduct underlying the plea or finding shall be admissible in a court of competent jurisdiction or an action concerning the person's filing for, candidacy for, or holding of an elected office.

(4) To be considered valid, a complaint alleging a violation of Arkansas Code § 21-8-305 shall include a copy of a court record reflecting that the person has pleaded guilty or nolo contendere to or has been found guilty of a public trust crime.
